

STUDENT TRANSITIONAL SERVICES PROGRAM

*It's not about Disabilities —
It's about Possibilities!*

Student Transitional Services Program

The Tribal Vocational Rehabilitation Program's Transitional Services is committed to assisting American Indian students with disabilities, ages 14 to 21.

We work with their families and school personnel throughout Connecticut and Rhode Island to make the transition from school to adult life as smooth and seamless as possible.

Services While In School

Attend and participate in school transition planning meetings to assist the student with development of:

- Post-Secondary Education Preparation
- Independent Living Skills
- Community Participation
- Employment Long-Term Goals

Services Post-High School

- Career Development
- Coordinating Community Resources
- Cover Letter Writing
- Resume Preparation
- Job Interview Skills Training
- Job Placement Assistance
- Follow-Up Support

Am I Eligible?

- ✓ You are an enrolled member of a state or federally recognized American Indian Tribe.
- ✓ You reside in Connecticut or Rhode Island.
- ✓ You have a disability that affects your ability to attain or maintain employment.

You may be eligible for assistance.
